Petersbourg, December 6.

ORDERS are sent to the Prince of Heſſe Hombourg at Warſaw, to march out of Poland with all the Ruſſian Troops, excepting 12000 Men, which he is to leave in that Country, under the Command of Major General Biſmar, the Grand Chamberlain's Brother in Law. It is not yet known to what Part of Ruſſia the Prince of Heſſe will go with thoſe Troops; but it is generally thought it will be towards the Ukraine. The Emperour has communicated to the Czarina, the Preliminary Articles concluded between his Imperial Majeſty and the French King.

Dantzick, Dec. 24, N. S. It is adviſed from Konigsberg, that King Staniſlaus having received by an Expreſs from France a Copy of the Preliminary Articles ſettled between the Emperour and the moſt Chriſtian King, immediately called together the chief Poliſh Lords who were there with him, and communicated thoſe Articles to them, and ſpoke to them what he judged proper on the Occaſion in very obliging Terms. Thoſe Lords retired to Count Tarlo's, and agreed, among other Things, to move his Majeſty to ſupply them with Money for diſcharging the Debts they had contracted during their Attendance on him. Theſe Letters add, that King Staniſlaus had received conſiderable Remittances from France.

Berlin, Dec. 31, N. S. According to the laſt Letters from Warſaw, which are of the 21ſt Inſtant, they had Advice there, that King Staniſlaus having received an Expreſs from France, with a Copy of the Preliminary Articles ſettled with the Emperour, had communicated the ſame to the Poles who remained with him at Konigsberg; and that after having thanked them for their Zeal and faithful Attachment to his Perſon, he had deſired them to acknowledge King Auguſtus as their lawful Prince. The Poſt of Governour of this Town, which has been vacant ſince the Death of Felt-Marſhal Warteſleben, was conferred two Days ago on Lieutenant General Glaſenap; and Major General Sidon is made Commandant of this Town, in the Room of the ſaid Lieutenant General Glaſenap.

Hague, Jan. 10, N. S. Mr. Walpole's Departure for London is deferr'd for ſome Days. But it is reckon'd his Excellency will be ready to imbark towards the End of next Week. The States of the Province of Holland will aſſemble To-morrow, almoſt all the Deputies being already arrived here. It is hoped the great Penſionary will aſſiſt in their Aſſembly, though he has been a little indiſpoſed theſe two Days. The Lord Crawfurd having made a Tour to Amſterdam is returned hither, and will ſpeedily ſet out for England.

Whitehall, January 2.

His Majeſty having been pleaſed to confer the Honour of Knighthood upon Thomas Abney, Eſq; one of his Council learned in the Law, has ſince been pleaſed to grant unto him the Office of Steward and one of the Judges of his Majeſty's Court of his Palace at Weſtminſter.
